

Honorable Judge Beckett is a 1980 graduate from Estill High School. She is married to Manuel Beckett Jr, where they have five children. She furthered her education at Claflin University, Orangeburg, South Carolina where she received a dual degree, Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology and Criminal Justice Administration where she graduated with honor as Magna Cum Launde.

She attended the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy in Columbia, South Carolina where she received her certification for Municipal Judge for State of South Carolina. She has served as the Associate Municipal Judge for four years for the Town of Estill. She has served as the Chief Municipal Judge for the past three years for the Town of Cottageville.

Judge Beckett is an active member at First Estill Baptist Church and loves, singing, praise dancing and reading. Her philosophy of life includes a vision, values, willingness to learn new information, motivation and commitment to excellence